

NAFFA

Native American Fatherhood and Families Association

Presents:

Precious Gem Awards

Please nominate an outstanding individual, in the greater Phoenix area, in one of 5 categories. This individual may be: A father, a mother, or a volunteer; a professional, a co-worker, or a neighbor. Awards are to be presented on Tuesday, October 16, 2019, during our banquet from 6:00-8:00 P.M.

The Rose Quartz Award: Like a rose, the rose quartz represents love; love for self and others. It is believed that those who possess the rose quartz stone, will be more open to positivity and love, as well as appreciate small acts of kindness, along with performing kindness to others.

The Rhodonite Award: The gem rhodonite is worn to create and maintain mental stability, after going through difficult times. The stone represents new beginnings, new friendships, and new levels of compassion. The recipient of this award has emerged from adversity with hope and a desire to bless others.

The Agate Award: The agate gem is all about healing the body. It is believed to protect children, and calm the body and mind. It is a purifying stone. Our winner in this category is an advocate for child safety, of mild temperament, and is pure in heart.

The Malachite Award: The gem of royals, malachite represents a sense of increased loyalty and fidelity. This stone gives the wearer courage and sturdiness, in pursuing their goals and duties. This individual is focused, true to their cause of choice, and moves forward with tenacity and kindness.

The Turquoise Award: This gem is said to be the most powerful in bringing good fortune to the wearer. Turquoise is strongly believed to be a bringer of health, luck, and overall positivity. The recipient of this award is youthful, no matter his or her age, incredibly optimistic, and shares their good fortune openly with others.

Please return your completed form to us, no later than Friday, August 23, 2019. The recipients will be chosen by the NAFFA staff, and contacted shortly thereafter. Thank you in advance for taking the time to help us recognize the people who serve our community.

